November Pro-Boxing Black Tie

Wednesday 26 November 2008 at the Café Royal, London

The National Sporting Club in association with the Mayfair Sporting Club is proud to present the annual November evening of professional boxing, the last ever to be held at its Café Royal headquarters in London's West End.

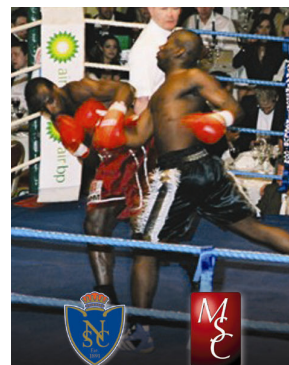

With a tradition of staging high quality boxing events over 100 years, this annual event on the sporting calendar continues to provide a unique and exciting opportunity to watch live sport in a truly prestigious location, whilst enjoying the good food and fine wine on offer. This farewell match will see the end of an era draw to a close so don't miss out on this great opportunity to experience the last black tie boxing event in the Empire Napoleon suite - the place where it first began back in 1891.

Promoter Michael Helliott will once again be lining up a number of well matched contests between some of the finest young British boxing talent, providing enthralling entertainment like no other.

Why not enjoy an evening commencing with a Canard Duchêne champagne reception and three-course dinner in the luxurious surroundings of the Café Royal, providing you and your guests with an evening to remember!

Sponsorship opportunities are available. Please contact Mark Hudson on 020 7437 0144 or email mark@nationalsportingclub.co.uk for more details.

Please note standard places do not include drinks with meal.
